

Keep San Francisco WALMART FREE!

- WHAT: Press Conference and Rally
WHEN: Thursday, April 21st
10:30am
WHERE: San Francisco City Hall Steps
(Polk Street between Grove and McAllister)

In 2011, the world's largest retailer has launched an aggressive expansion strategy into urban markets like San Francisco that represent the final frontier for Walmart's "race to the bottom" business model.

Join San Francisco residents, workers and small business owners at a press conference and rally to tell the City that we will not let Walmart come into our community and lower job standards and destroy local businesses.
